PRINCIPAL'S DESK

With the blessings of the Mother we have begun the construction of our new block. It marks a great aspect of growth and progress. It has always been a delight to walk miles with our children, parents and all the staff members who have stood with us throughout this aspiring journey. I extend my gratitude to every individual who is the part and parcel of this achievement.

The conversations of the eager minds, roars of the enthusiastic orators, vigorous excitement of the victorious players, the beats of dancer feet and the rhythm of melodious voices gave us the energy to run through the past several months with a positive note.

The month of September kicked in with an amazing start to the celebrations and festivities with Krishna Jayanthi. Krishna Jayanthi, the birthday of Lord Krishna was celebrated with great devotion and enthusiasm at Primrose Schools. The staff and students too showed their love and gratitude towards 'Lord Krishna' through a short role play, dance drama, songs and skits. The children participated with enthusiasm and showcased their devotion and unity through various art forms.

As Helen Caldicott rightly quotes "Teachers, I believe, are the most responsible and important members of the society because their professional efforts affect the fate of the Earth," teachers deserve to be honored. The students of Primrose took great pleasure in honoring the teachers on the Teachers' Day, September 05, 2018, which marks the birth of the great teacher Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. Teachers' day celebration began as the students shared their love, as a token of respect, to their teachers. As part of the celebrations the students sang songs, danced, presented a comedy skit, played games and also delivered inspiring speeches and touching poems.

Every festival that comes on our way touches the heart of each individual at Primrose School, so did Ganesh Chaturthi touch the heart of everyone through a Special Assembly conducted by Grade IX. The children of class IX enacted a famous scene from “Thiruvilayadal” bringing to light the importance of parents.

We focus on building responsibility in our students, through nurturing a strong sense of social and environmental awareness through academic and co-curricular activities. Keeping this in mind our school in order to foster environmental awareness among the students conducted a campaign against plastics – GO PLASTIC GO.

The home and the educational institution of a student are the places where the child imbibes the spirit of social-service. And we at Primrose Schools take every opportunity to imbibe the spirit of charity, social service and sharing. The students of class X conducted a garage sale and the proceedings of which was donated for ‘LITTLE HEART Home - Panaiyur’ to provide a special lunch for a day. It was a very touching and enriching experience for the students and teachers who accompanied them.

Creativity is a powerful motivator for both individuals and teams. And it’s not something only artists have – with the help of specific techniques, it can be taught, trained, and enhanced. Workshops are a popular format for creative meetings that elicit participants' intrinsic drive and motivation. With this regard the students of class IX, XI and XII of Primrose had the good opportunity of attending a workshop on Innovations on the 19th of September 2018 conducted by Mr Navneet Bhushan. He indicated that something as simple and mundane as a toothbrush could also be modified into a smart toothbrush with ideation. The workshop definitely triggered off the imagination way beyond the normal levels and ended up with a task given by Mr. Navneet to the students, which was to imagine and ideate on smart changes in Primrose Schools.

“Give a man a fish and you feed him for a day. Teach a man a to fish and you feed him for a life time.” We strive in building the competency in our children to face the challenging world confidently and independently. I was proud and happy when the children of Class XI Business Studies proposed to host a business project on the theme “Double it”. The children learnt to invest and double it will through a food business which was scheduled for the Open Day. They were of course successful in running the show for two days in our premises and did double their investment. The children were good enough in reading the pulse of the costumers and chose to serve them with the most needed. Their organizing skill, planning and execution deserves an appreciation too. Children sold Coffee, Sandwiches, Pani Puri, Masala Puri and conducted fun games. A business starts small and it did start well with the kids of Class XI. Every day at Primrose marks an achievement. Stepping into the next term with lot of dreams for our children. Wishing you all success in every endeavor.

Regards
Principal.

TEACHERS' DAY

Teachers handle wet clay in the form of students and shape the future citizens who are morally correct, responsible and good human beings.

Teachers are the backbone of the nation for they are like a candle that consumes itself to light the way for others. Since time immemorial, India has paid due respects to this creed known as 'Guru'. In fact, in the Rig Veda, a Guru has been equated to the Supreme Being.

Teachers were greeted with a rose and cards each.

Teacher's day song

Teacher, gentle and kind, with my hand and guide, you show me the way. Teacher, when you are giving us your knowledge, we have to thank you. Teaching you for all that you have done and thank you for all you do. I've been inspired by your words in that without your advice, we are still the young ones. Help me walk to the young ones for long. Teacher, father, and I do know, when you are beside me, I'm always when I'm old and wise. I'll remember you, promise I'll never forget. At the thought of you, thank you for all that you have done and thank you for all you do. I've been inspired by your hands, so thank you, thank you!

TEACHER

A teacher is an inspirational person, she teaches us for a reason, she teaches all worlds. But we misuse every single word, teachers stand all day, and lay down all night, teachers take care of us like our parents, in friends, we'll all remember our teachers for ever, let us merge their work together.

Celebrate Teacher's Day Essay

Teacher's day in India is celebrated every year on 5th of September to honour the contribution of our study, society and country. There is a great reason behind celebrating the teacher's day on 5th of September. 5th of September is the birth anniversary of a great person named Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. He was highly devoted towards education and well known as the scholar, diplomat, President of India and most importantly a Teacher.

Once, when he became an Indian president in 1962, some students requested him to allow them to celebrate his birthday on 5th of September. He said that instead of celebrating 5th of September as my birthday personally, why not, I + is celebrated as Teacher's Day as my dedication towards the teaching profession. After his statement 5th of September is being shared celebrating as a Teachers Day all over the India.

TEACHER'S DAY

My favorite teacher is Hema ma. She is my class teacher too and takes attendance daily in the morning. She is a strict teacher however very funny and caring in nature. She is very disciplined and punctual. I like her very much as she tries very easy ways to teach us good things. We enjoy her class. She teaches us Math & EVS. She makes us laugh by telling lots of jokes in between when she teaches. She teaches us to share things in class among our colleagues such as lunch or other needed things.
