🦾 Campaigns: Battle of the Titans

Lok Sabha campaigns were a whirlwind of rallies, debates, and media blitzes. Helicopters criss-cross the skies, and the air crackles with promises of transformation.

Meanwhile, in the corridors of Primrose, our future leaders waged their campaigns—lunchtime speeches, catchy slogans, and attractive promises. It was politics seasoned with a touch of innocence!

"Engaging with my classmates and conveying my vision for our school community was incredibly fulfilling. The journey empowered me to amplify voices and foster unity." - said our young leader of class X Aishwarya

Student Election 2024-2025

✦ The Power of the People: Every Vote Counts

Whether it's a national ballot or a classroom ballot box, the principle remains sacred: every vote is a voice, every vote a choice. In the Lok Sabha elections, the destiny of a nation hangs in the balance. In the student council elections, the destiny of the next bake sale or prom theme is up for grabs. The power of democracy shone brightly, regardless of scale.

Student Election 2024-2025

In the vibrant tapestry of student life, the act of voting casts a powerful spell—empowering young voices and shaping collective destinies.

"Voting was exhilarating! Walking into the polling station, made us feel a surge of responsibility and excitement. Seeing the candidates' names on the ballot made us realize the impact of our choice. It wasn't just about popularity; it was about who we believed would make a positive difference. It's empowering to know that even as students, our voice matters."- voiced the girls of classes VII & VIII.

Student Election 2024-2025

"We had the privilege of casting our vote this year, and it was eye-opening. Discussing the candidates' platforms with our friends helped us understand different perspectives. When we marked our choice on the ballot, we felt a sense of ownership over our school's future. It's a small step, but it taught us the importance of participating in decision-making processes." - asserted classes VIII & IX Boys & Girls.

Ramzan Celebration

Celebrating Ramzan in School: Embracing Diversity and Unity

As we enter the blessed month of Ramzan, our school community came together to celebrate the spirit of diversity, compassion, and unity.

Ramzan, also known as Ramadan, holds profound significance for our Muslim friends and families, marking a period of fasting, prayer, and reflection. May this month foster a spirit of harmony and solidarity within our school, reflecting the true essence of inclusivity and compassion. - said Saatwika (Newly appointed Literary Secretary of our school)

Intra – School Debate Competition

At the heart of our Intra-School Debate Competition lies a commitment to nurturing critical thinkers and effective communicators. We believe that engaging in debates fosters skills essential for academic success and personal growth. - claims Master Shrihari of class IX

Voice of the Youth: Empowering Expression

The debate stage became a platform for our students to voice their opinions on issues that matter. Through their impassioned speeches and rebuttals, they exemplified the power of youth in shaping meaningful dialogues and driving positive change.

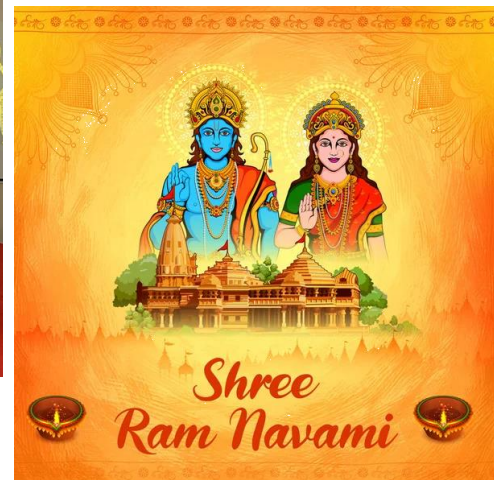

Class VI Assembly

TOPIC : RAMA NAVAMI

Celebrating Rama Navami: Embracing Tradition and Spirituality

Our school community was filled with joy and reverence to commemorate the birth of Lord Rama, the epitome of righteousness and virtue. We came together to celebrate this significant festival with devotion, cultural richness, and a deep sense of spirituality in our morning assembly the entire month.

Students of class VI enthralled the audience with captivating classical dance performances showcasing stories from the Ramayana.

Class VII & VIII Assembly

TOPIC : RAMA NAVAMI

Rama Navami holds immense significance in Hindu tradition, marking the birth anniversary of Lord Rama, the seventh avatar of Lord Vishnu.

The dance programs served as a bridge between cultures, fostering appreciation for Indian classical arts and mythology among students of diverse backgrounds. Through dance, we celebrated unity in diversity and cherished the universal themes of righteousness and compassion.

Each performance by classes VII and VIII was a testament to their hard work, passion, and artistic flair.

TOPIC : RAMA NAVAMI

Artistic Expressions: Symbolism & Storytelling

The choreographies were a feast for the senses, adorned with colourful costumes, symbolic gestures, and expressive movements that conveyed the essence of Rama's virtues—dharma (righteousness), bhakti (devotion), and vairagya (detachment). Each dance piece was a testament to our students' dedication and creativity.

★ Educational Significance: Learning through Arts

Beyond entertainment, the assembly program served as an educational experience, allowing students to deepen their understanding of Indian mythology, culture, and spirituality. Through dance, they explored the timeless teachings embedded in the Ramayana.

Class VI Assembly

TOPIC : VALUES FROM RAMAYANA

We are excited to share the enriching experience of our special assembly program focused on exploring values from the timeless epic, the Ramayana. Through engaging presentations, storytelling, and discussions, we delved into the profound teachings embedded in this ancient narrative, inspiring our school community to reflect on and embody these values in our lives. Here are the highlights of our memorable assembly program:

Class VI performed a wonderful program bringing out the core values such as Upholding Dharma, Respecting Elders, Forgiving others, and so on from the great Indian Epic "Ramayana".

Class VII Assembly

TOPIC : VALUES FROM RAMAYANA

Our assembly programme of class VII began with captivating sessions that brought to life the inspiring tales from the Ramayana. Students were entranced by the adventures of Lord Rama, Sita, Hanuman, and other beloved characters, discovering the triumph of good over evil and the power of unwavering virtue.

Class VIII Assembly

TOPIC : VALUES FROM RAMAYANA

🌸 Devotional Offerings: Paying Homage to Lord Rama

Students showcased their vocal talents through traditional songs praising the virtues and valour of Lord Rama. The rhythmic beats and harmonious melodies created a serene atmosphere, inviting everyone to immerse themselves in the divine aura of the epic narrative.

Class IX Assembly
